Anger
Anger is an emotion, and all emotions should be subservient to the will. Keep the rising anger down by the power of your will. Admitted there are many things that cause anger—justifiable anger. Yet, now that you know the scientific truth that anger is a killer of men, and that every time you get into a blazing rage you are pegging back the tale of your years, is it worth while to get angry?

Several speakers were listened to with unusual interest and profit. Rev. H. W. Hunter, the new pastor of the Methodist church at Newport spoke upon "The Cross," showing that more than anything else the cross is essential to the life of the church and society.

After the audience had been entertained by a solo by Mrs. Chas. LeBourveau, Geo. C. Robinson, who has been a pillar in the church ever since the local society came into existence, gave a resume of the history of the society, speaking of its pastors and prominent laymen. Mr. Robinson was followed by Rev. W. S. Smithers of Orleans, who was pastor of the local church about thirty years ago. He mentioned the changes that had occurred during the years, spoke of the pleasant memories of the past, and emphasized the importance of personal responsibility. Rev. W. C. Chrystie, who left Island Pond about two years ago, was also heard with delight as he spoke upon "The Hand of God." Rev. R. F. Lowe, Superintendent of St. Johnsbury district, pronounced the benediction.

A good congregation attended. Besides Mr. Robinson there were a few others of the old members of the church present. Among them was Geo. Currier, who has not been permitted to attend the services of the church for a number of months.

Frank Nelson, who has been in ill health the past two years, passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Parsons, Monday morning, from the result of an operation. Services were held Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Parsons' previous to taking the remains to Alna, Me., for interment.

Died—At Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, Monday, June 5th, following an operation for appendicitis, Lawrence, youngest son of Mrs. Mary Kelley. Funeral services were held Thursday at Derby, where interment took place. Of the relatives from out of town to attend the funeral were his mother, brother and three sisters.

The following pictures will be shown at the Opera House next Wednesday evening, June 21st: The 2d episode of "The Red Circle," in two parts; "Where The Trail Led," 2 reel feature; "In Soft In A Studio," 1 reel feature; "In The French Soudan," 1 reel. Prices 5, 10 and 15 cents. "The Red Circle" will be a most excellent feature.

"The Red Circle," shown at the opera house last Wednesday evening, was very interesting and exciting. It is the last serial ever produced under the Pathe Exchange. It is expected "The Iron Claw" will also be shown soon, the dates of which have not been announced. Manager Kane has informed us that he has secured the services of Donald Vantine, who will take charge of the machine about July 1st.

Poisoning Case.

Dr. H. A. Ladd of Burlington testified in the hearing relative to Mrs. Hudson, who operates a boarding house in Guildhall and she was bound over to the Essex county grand jury. Arsenic was found in food which it is alleged she prepared, not enough to be fatal but enough to make persons eating the food ill.

Meeting of St. Johnsbury District Methodist Association.

Considering the weather and geographical position of Island Pond, St. Johnsbury District was exceptionally well represented at its association meeting held in the local church June 12th and 13th. About twenty preachers were present and a few of the mistresses of the manse. Among those who were heard with profit were Dr. J. W. Hatch, principal of the Montpelier Seminary, who spoke on the interests of that institution, Dr. A. C. Atkinson, Superintendent of Sunday school work for the New Hampshire and Vermont conferences, and Rev. R. F. Lowe, Superintendent of St. Johnsbury district, who gave "Personal Impressions of the General Conference."

The church feels more than repaid for the work required to entertain its preacher-guests. Dollars and cents could not indicate the profit that comes from such a gathering in the way of social pleasure and religious inspiration.

Re-opening of Grace Methodist Church.

The re-opening of the Methodist church on the evening of June 12th was an occasion which will not soon be forgotten by those who had the privilege to attend. After months of work, during which about $1300 has been expended, all felt like rejoicing over the accomplishment of what at first seemed an impossible task. The new steel ceiling, the new system of lighting, the change on the walls, the memorial windows, the paint and new shingles on the exterior make the edifice appear well-nigh like a new church.

Several speakers were listened to with unusual interest and profit. Rev. H. W. Hunter, the new pastor of the Methodist church at Newport spoke upon "The Cross," showing that more than anything else the cross is essential to the life of the church and society. After the audience had been entertained by a solo by Mrs. Chas. LeBourveau, Geo. C. Robinson, who has been a pillar in the church ever since the local society came into existence, gave a resume of the history of the society, speaking of its pastors and prominent laymen. Mr. Robinson was followed by Rev. W. S. Smithers of Orleans, who was pastor of the local church about thirty years ago. He mentioned the changes that had occurred during the years, spoke of the pleasant memories of the past, and emphasized the importance of personal responsibility. Rev. W. C. Chrystie, who left Island Pond about two years ago, was also heard with delight as he spoke upon "The Hand of God." Rev. R. F. Lowe, Superintendent of St. Johnsbury district, pronounced the benediction.

A good congregation attended. Besides Mr. Robinson there were a few others of the old members of the church present. Among them was Geo. Currier, who has not been permitted to attend the services of the church for a number of months.
